

David Nieper Academy – Options 2018

- No career paths closed off to students.
- These were some of the things I wanted to do as a child. None of them involved being a teacher!

- You make your initial option choices on the options form ...
- This will dictate whether some subjects can or cannot be offered as options – you MUST think carefully about your choices, these should end up being the subjects you study for three years.
- The final date for pupils to submit options forms to tutors is Friday 16th March.

- We will keep you informed over the next three years as this grading system evolves.

EBACC

- The English Baccalaureate (EBacc) is awarded when students secure a grade 4 or above at GCSE level across a core of five academic subjects – It is not a qualification in itself.
- For some careers, university courses this combination of subjects may be beneficial. However, it may not be a combination that is appropriate for all students.
  - English
  - Mathematics
  - Science
  - French
  - Geography, History, Computer Science

Tips for making the right choices

- Here are some good reasons for choosing a subject:
  - you have ability in a subject and have achieved good results
  - you are interested in a particular subject
  - you enjoy a subject
- Here are some bad reasons for choosing a subject:
  - your friends have chosen the subject (it may not be appropriate for you)
  - you like the teacher (you may not stay with the same teacher)

Every year some pupils ignore the dos and don'ts and make the mistake of choosing subjects because they like a particular teacher or their friends are studying those subjects. This almost always results in serious mistakes being made with option choices and a lot of distress.

PLEASE make YOUR selections based only on what YOU want to study and believe YOU are good at.
